

Alan W. Berger, CPA-Partner

Alan has been practicing accounting since his graduation from The Ohio State University in 1975. He joined his father and grandfather in their third generation family firm, then called Louis A. Blue and Associates. It later became Berger, Apple & Associates until the recent transformation to Singer, Berger, Press & Co.

Alan prides himself on the tax and accounting services he offers to his clients, along with the lasting and meaningful relationships formed with them while working to meet their financial objectives. He serves as partner in charge of practice development.

Alan and his wife Bonni have two children. He serves as Treasurer for the Beachwood 100, the Beachwood Citizens for Quality Schools, and The Breakfast Club. Alan is also an active participant in raising funds for the Cleveland Baseball Federation, and volunteers with countless other organizations.
