

Michael S. Singer, CPA-Partner

Michael has provided accounting and tax services in the field of public accounting since his graduation from Miami University in 1970. He began his career with a predecessor of Bick, Fredman and Co. and has remained with the company through its current transformation to Singer, Berger, Press & Co.

Michael is proud of the services he has been providing to his business clients, their owners and other individuals. Those services include helping his clients to minimize taxes, operate more efficiently, obtain financing and understand their financial reports. He serves as the Firm Administrator and the partner in charge of the accounting department.

Michael and his wife Debbie have three children and three grandchildren. He served as Treasurer for the Hebrew Shelter Home for over twenty years and as the Chairman of the Audit Committee for Park Synagogue.
